This is a detailed topographic map of the Varese region in Italy. The map shows the city of Varese and its surrounding areas, including Sesto San Giovanni, Gallarate, and Arona. The map features a network of roads, railways, and water bodies. A prominent red line, likely a railway or major road, runs diagonally across the map. Other colored lines (yellow, blue, green) highlight specific routes or boundaries. The map includes contour lines indicating elevation and various place names in Italian.
